

Jean-Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet Retrospective at Miguel Abreu Gallery

When

Apr 24 - Jun 19, 2016

Where

Miguel Abreu Gallery
88 Eldridge St
New York, NY 10002

Jean-Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet, Der Tod des Empedokles [film still], 1987, courtesy of the artists and Miguel Abreu Gallery, New York

Beginning April 24, 2016, a retrospective exhibition on Jean-Marie Straub et Danièle Huillet will be on view at Miguel Abreu Gallery: Films and Their Sites.

Films and Their Sites is the first full-scale US exhibition dedicated to the work of the renowned French filmmaker couple, Jean-Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet. Comprised of photograms, videos, and annotated scripts, among other materials, the show attempts to render palpable the meticulous adaptation methods they developed since the early 1960s to stage carefully chosen operas and texts from the canon of Western literature. Curated by Jean-Louis Raymond, in collaboration with Barbara Ulrich and Miguel Abreu, the exhibition coincides with a complete retrospective of their films, opening at MoMA on May 6th.

LOCATION: Miguel Abreu Gallery

DATE: April 24 - June 19, 2016

Click here for more info.

MORE EVENTS

Books
Music
Visual & Performing Arts
Film, TV & New Media
View all events

1/12

ONGOING EVENTS

1/3

RECOMMENDED FOR YOU

Subscribe to our Newsletter!

Visual & Performing Arts

Artists in Residence
Events
Festivals

Grants & Programs
News
Profiles

Resources